

This is a terrific book published by the Master Gardener press. We were the Technical Advisor for it. If you are just getting started in the water gardening hobby, this is the book for you!

This book can be purchased at various nurseries around town, Southwest Gardener, the UofA Maricopa County Cooperative Extension Office, and several other places around town.